

2016 SEASON SCHEDULE & INFORMATION

BMO Mainstage

The Merry Wives of Windsor

Directed by Johnna Wright

Welcome back to Windsor, Ontario, where it's 1968 and Shakespeare's beloved buffoon, the English ex-pat John Falstaff, is on the hunt for love and money. His scheme to seduce two wealthy housewives is the cue for mayhem, music and some hilariously sweet revenge!

Romeo and Juliet

Directed by Kim Collier

For centuries, audiences have been captivated by the tale of Romeo and Juliet, their passionate love and their courage in the face of their families' bitter feud. This classical, sensuous new production is a salute to the timeless power of Shakespeare's most tragic love story.

Othello

Directed by Bob Frazer

Why would a man who has everything allow suspicion and jealousy to destroy his peace of mind? The American Civil War is the setting for this staging of Othello, the story of a powerful leader, his beautiful wife and the amoral villain who sets out to destroy them.

Howard Family Stage

Pericles

Directed by Lois Anderson

In an ancient pagan world, a hero sets out to win a princess but instead uncovers a terrible secret. Thus begins a thrilling tale, marked by far-flung adventures, love lost and found – and a broken family that years to be reunited.
